Isn't this encouraging problem gambling?

Our Lottery is a small society Lottery and designed to be played for fun. The maximum number of entries the Charity will promote through any of its recruitment channels is two entries per week (£2). Checks will be in place to identify anyone seeking to increase this by making multiple applications through multiple channels.

The Charity is a member of the Hospice Lotteries Association, which commits us to promoting responsible gambling, and which invests in programmes and schemes to reduce problem gambling.

What about vulnerable people?

Policies and procedures are in place to identify and protect vulnerable people through all our recruitment channels.

How is the Lottery promoted?

New members will be recruited in the following ways:

- Promotional literature. Distribution of membership leaflets will be available at events, through the Charity or in public areas. New members can use these forms to complete their details and send them back to the Charity for entry.
- Online recruitment. Players can sign up online and play by direct debit at: www.kirkwoodhospice.co.uk/lottery
- Door-to-door recruitment. We currently have a small team canvassing our local area, door-to-door, to sign people up to our weekly Lottery. People can call the Charity on 01484 557913 to confirm that this is the case.
