VOLUNTEERING WITH THE KIRKWOOD

Volunteering has been a part of the fabric of The Kirkwood since the idea of a 'Hospice for Kirklees' was first conceived. Over the years, thousands of local people have offered their time and skills as volunteers, and The Kirkwood you see today is a testament to the fantastic contribution they have made.

Currently, around 800 volunteers dedicate a total of 120,000 hours each year, helping us to provide palliative care to local people with life limiting illnesses. But it doesn't stop there! Our volunteers also provide additional support to families, friends and carers during their loved one's illness and in bereavement.

The Kirkwood are a movement of people. A thriving, vibrant and vital community spread right across Kirklees. From our patients and our employees to our donors, volunteers and supporters, every single one of them is part of 'The Kirkwood Movement'.

VOLUNTEERING ROLES

There are lots of ways you can help The Kirkwood, with opportunities in non-retail and clinical team ranging from hospitality and fundraising to bereavement support or working on our In-Patient Unit. We also offer exciting ways to help out in our 20 shops across Kirklees, including retail assistant, online sales, receptionist roles and many more.

Each and every one of our roles are for open to volunteers of all ages and backgrounds, so no matter who you are, you are sure to find the perfect volunteering role with The Kirkwood.

MAKING A DIFFERENCE

However you contribute, whether it's on our In-Patient Unit, in one of our charity shops, at a local event, or as a member of one of our community-based Support Groups, you will be part of giving something truly special to people in your town, village or street.

You'll be giving them a chance to live the very best quality of life possible, to die with dignity, and to know those they love will be supported to live on and live well.

And when you do that, you'll feel proud of what you've achieved as part of The Kirkwood Movement. You'll know you have made your community better for those in need.

“The Kirkwood is an amazing charity which I am truly proud to be part of.”

A little of your time can make a massive difference to what we can achieve together for local people here in Kirklees!

And don't forget, it's not 'all work and no play'! Volunteering with The Kirkwood gives you the chance to meet new people and make new friends, join in volunteer celebration events, and socialise with other members of your team. And if you stay with us long enough, you'll even pick up a long-service award.
